

Arkansas Coalition for Obesity Prevention

Growing Healthy Communities Summit

Northwest Region

May 23, 2017

9 am - 4 pm

North Arkansas College - Harrison

Center Campus, 303 North Main Street, Harrison, AR 72601

The Arkansas Coalition for Obesity Prevention Presents:

TRACK 1 Farmers Market Vendor Training

Farmers Market Vendors and Volunteers: Learn how to sell and have a successful market.

- Basics of selling at market
- Planning & planting
- Key marketing practices
- Growing for profit
- Double Up Food Bucks
- Becoming a SNAP Vendor

TRACK 2 School & Community Gardens

School and Community Champions: Improve nutrition.

- Innovative school programs & curriculum standards
- Starting a community garden
- Addressing community food waste
- Utilizing available resources

TRACK 3 Built Environment

Policy Makers & Community Activists: Initiate new built - environment polices for a more livable and vibrant community and vibrant economy.

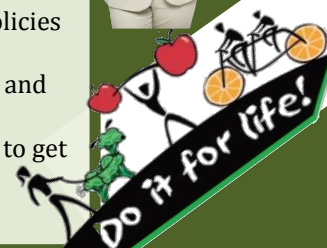

- Walkability and Bikeability
- Support & Assessment
- Plan and Policy Development
- Leveraging Funds
- Health & Economic Impact

TRACK 4 Worksite Wellness

Employers: Learn the benefits of implementing and sustaining an employee wellness program.

- Leveraging existing policies and benefits
- Establishing baselines and measuring progress
- "Take home" the tools to get started!

Local Conversations

2017 GHC Summit Registration

This event is FREE & includes Lunch
You must register by May 22nd.

Register Now
<http://arkansasobesity.org>

The Arkansas Coalition for Obesity Prevention (ArCOP) will have funding opportunities ONLY for communities represented at this event. There are funding opportunities for:

- farmer's markets who want to participate in Double Up Food Bucks at their markets,
- community & school garden seed funds,
- community stakeholder engagement events for complete streets campaigns, and
- worksite wellness policy, system and environment changes.

Attend the event to find out more on how your community can be funded!

Arkansas Coalition for Obesity Prevention